◯ Windows 7

◯ Windows Vista

◯ Windows XP

Did the program crash? *

◯ Yes (Please write down what occurred below)

◯ No

If the program crashed, please write down what occurred here.

It didn't give the right dialogue when I entered a positive number (12^2) and it told me to put a positive

Do you have Office 2010 or higher installed? *

◯ Yes

🔘 No

Was the program easy to use? *

◯ Yes

🔘 No

If the program was not easy to use, why?

because its easier to type powers for 2^1/2 and such. Obviously I wouldn't want to type out an irrational number

Did any errors appear when using the program? *

🔘 Yes

◯ No

Did you understand these errors, or should they be better explained? *

Why do I have to understand them? You have to fix them. (the positive dialogue thing is a problem

⦿ Yes

◯ No

If you have tried a version with the help button, did you think the help button was useful?

◯ Yes

⦿ No (VB6 cannot open links by the way.)

Any features you recommend should be added? *

Yes, obviously, powers, negatives, irrationals, fractions, etc

Did you find any bugs? If not, write "No" in the box below. *

Yes, it gave the wrong response even though I entered a positive number
